

Waiver of liability

We ask that you take full and complete responsibility for your own health, safety and well-being while participating in any NCP workshop or program and that you absolve NCP, the workshop leaders, staff and the state in which the workshop or program is held of all liability. If at any time you feel your health, safety or well-being is in jeopardy, we ask that you notify workshop staff immediately and halt your participation until you have done so.

In addition, we ask that you take responsibility for any and all medical and/or legal expense you may incur as a result of any accident or injury sustained during your participation in a NCP workshop or program.

NCP cannot be held responsible for loss or damage to your personal property, including cameras or automobiles.

We also retain the right to cancel any workshop and to alter the time, context or format of any workshop if circumstances so require. If a workshop is canceled for any reason, our liability is limited to refunding all fees paid to NCP.

Weather

Most of our workshop sessions take place out of doors. NCP cannot be responsible for the weather. However, in case of severely inclement weather that's not compatible with the workshop agenda, we will try to find alternate locations that are suitable.

Acknowledgement

I have read and understood the workshop application procedures, and I agree to them. By signing this acknowledgement, I hereby release and hold harmless the Northwest Center for Photography (NCP), Sharon Lavier O'Keefe, or anyone associated with or acting on their behalf, from any and all liability associated with my workshop or program participation.

I understand that my participation in a NCP workshop will be declined if I do not sign this release of liability form, and that my nonrefundable deposit will be retained by NCP.
